The name and signature of the one who prepared the FAMILY TREE should be written here, including the date of accomplishing.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

1. Write "UNKNOWN" for indefinite or undetermined information.
2. The FAMILY TREE sheet may be photocopied. If using a computer program in making one, Please ALWAYS follow the Embassy-provided format.
3. Make sure that all information provided is complete, legible, and correct. Include all information regarding each family member, including the deceased
4. Indicate both Japanese and Filipino names of person, if applicable. A female's maiden name should always be used regardless of marriage.
5. If a person has more than one spouse and/or has children with another partner/s, use a separate Family Tree sheet for each couple. This is regardless of whether the couple is married or not [This is also applicable in cases of single parenthood.]
6. The 1st Generation is ALWAYS the Japanese ancestor who came to the Philippines. The 2nd Generation is the half-Japanese, half-Filipino ancestor in which the Family File is based. He/She is always the 2nd Generation regardless of whether he/she already has his/her own koseki Tohon. 3rd Generation is the grandchild of pure Japanese, the 4th Generation is the great-grandchild, and so on and so forth.
