

フィリピン共和国大統領メッセージ

The Filipino nation joins the people of Japan in commemorating the 77th Anniversary of the End of the Pacific War. The lessons of the past remain relevant to this day and serve as stark reminders of the consequences of violating the sovereignty of nations as part of efforts to pursue misguided national interests.

This year, too, we mark 66 years of Philippines-Japan friendship that continues to grow and expand into varied and mutually beneficial areas of cooperation. Ours has become one of the closest partnerships in the region—one that moves toward our shared goals of peace, progress, and prosperity, never wavering even in the midst of an ever-changing regional landscape.

It is my hope that we would remain steadfast and committed to the ideals of free dom, human rights, and sustainable development for our peoples and the entire humankind.
